
Senior Internship Credit

Attention 3rd and 4th year Graphic Design Students

If you have completed the Junior Graphic Design major courses and will be taking the Senior Graphic Design courses next fall, then you are eligible for the 3 credit internship experience performed either during the summer between junior/senior year or during either semester of senior year. Please read details below for more information. PRE-APPROVAL is required.

Eligibility

- You must have completed your junior major classes in Graphic Design.
- You must obtain approval in advance from your faculty advisor to use the internship for senior credit and to be able to enroll into the course (through add/drop process).
- The internship must be within a design firm, ad agency, marketing firm, design/marketing unit within a company, or similar type of business.
- The intern position must be under the supervision of a designer, senior designer, art director, creative director, marketing communications person, or similar person. They must have a relationship to the design profession.
- You cannot be the sole designer as then you are not learning from someone else. Freelance is not used for internship. You must be working on-site with a supervisor in a role as stated previously.

The Program Overview

Students may work at their internship and earn course credit during the fall or spring semester of senior year or during summer between junior/senior year. During the academic year, students will earn the credit during the same semester they perform the internship. Summer internship credit is awarded during the following Fall Semester.

- Students are responsible for securing their own internship with approval from the faculty advisor.
- Use the Internship Pre-approval form you can download from the graphic design blog on the Internships page. graphicdesign.cias.rit.edu
- An unpaid internship must have a minimum of 6 hours/week required, and should be arranged with the employer. But not to exceed 20 hours a week. (Or a minimum of 90 hours and maximum of 300 hours for the semester). For a paid internship, you can work fulltime. Please consult your Faculty Advisor.
- Students will treat their internship as both a job and a learning experience.
- Students may be required to meet with their assigned faculty advisor to discuss their progress.
- Students will be required to submit a final summary outlining their experience and examples of their work. Please consult with your Faculty Advisor.

Course Registration Process After Approval

- Once your Faculty Advisor approves the internship, he/she must arrange enrollment for you by using the current add/drop process in place for the college.

Employers Responsibility

- Employers will schedule interns at mutually agreed upon times and adhere to the minimum/maximum hours as stated previously under Program Overview.
- Employers will utilize the students' in an appropriate function and offer meaningful work and professional guidance to the student.
- Employers will be required to submit an evaluation form upon completion of the student's internship. The evaluation will be sent to you from the Faculty Advisor.

For Internships to be Completed Over the Summer

- You must obtain pre-approval from your Faculty Advisor.
- Use the Internship Pre-approval form by downloading from the graphic design blog Internships page. The PDF version is a fillable form. graphicdesign.cias.rit.edu
- Once approved, you will be added to the course by the Chair of Graphic Design for Summer Tiger Term into Senior Graphic Design Internship Elective (NOTE: you need to be registered for Summer Tiger Term).
- In the last week of July of your summer internship, email a reminder to the Chair of Graphic Design to send your employer an evaluation form.
- You will need work with the Chair of Graphic Design in the first week of August when you will submit examples of your work and submit a final written summary. This needs to be done for grading (see the Tiger Term Schedule and ask the Department Chair for the actual deadline).
- You will be awarded your credits at the end of the Tiger Term in which you complete the internship.

For Internships to be Completed During Fall or Spring Semester

- Follow the same steps as listed under eligibility and program overview. You must get pre-approval from your Faculty Advisor before you start the internship.
- Once approved, you will be added to the course by your Faculty Advisor for the semester into Senior Graphic Design Internship Elective.
- You will be awarded your credits at the end of the semester in which you complete the internship.
- Remind your faculty advisor to send your employer an evaluation form around the 13th or 14th week of the semester.
- You will need to meet with your faculty advisor at the end of the semester (either 15th week or Finals week) where you will show your work and submit a final written summary.

INSTRUCTIONS
